

Anthropological Engagements with Contemporary Global Challenges

Week 2: 2nd February

Confined under the open sky: experiencing homelessness during a global pandemic

Luisa Schneider (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam & Max Planck Institut, Halle)

Week 3: 9th February

Husbandry of Hope: Maintaining the Affective and Material Commons through Crisis at a Burkina Faso Market

Sarah-Jane Phelan (University of Sussex)

Week 4: 16th February

"Only the Orangutans Get a Life Jacket": Uncommoning Responsibility in a Global Conservation Nexus

Liana Chua with Hannah Fair, Viola Schreer, Anna Stypie and Paul Thung (Brunel University)

Week 5: 23rd February

Blind spots in global health: Lassa fever and the production of neglect in Sierra Leone

Hannah Brown (Durham University)

Week 6: 2nd March

A Right to Care: The Social Foundations of Recovery from Covid-19 in the UK

Nikita Simpson, Connor Watt, Jordan Vieira, Jaskiran Kaur Bhogal, Alison Pearson with Laura Bear (The LSE Covid and Care Research Group)

Week 7: 9th March

Of Jaguar-Shamans and the Sacrifices made for Progreso in Peru's Extractive Frontier

Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti (University of Sussex)

Week 8: 16th March

Peasants, Migrant Workers, and "Supermarkets": An Ethnographic Account of Chinese Development from the Margin

Minh Nguyen (Bielefeld University)

For any queries contact:

Anke Schwittay (as905@sussex.ac.uk)

Meike Fechter (af38@sussex.ac.uk)

Evan Killick (e.killick@sussex.ac.uk)